1200 NUMBERS ARE DRAWN IN BABY DRAFT

PERSHING DETAILS U. S. REGIMENT TO ITALY

REGISTERED MEN INVADE BOARDS FOR DRAFT NEWS

Local Bodies Play Important Part in Posting and Giving Information to Registrants
Whose Numbers Were Listed

ORDER OF NUMBERS
AMOUNTS TO LITTLE

Today's Drawing Determines Only Relative Summoning of New Registrants As Finally Classified by Local Boards

Local draft boards played an important part in the "baby draft" today which included into federal war service from 4500 divisions of the country, when they posted for information of registrants of June 5, the 1200 numbers drawn by the Senate committee which determined the order of service.

Questionnaires have already been sent to the registrants. With this work cleared up and seven days interim before they are returned properly filled out, the boards devoted today principally to the giving out of information. Most of it had to do with the order of liability of service of the registrants.

It has been pointed out by draft officials that the order in which the numbers of the "baby class" are cal-ed amounts to very little. The whole assortment of the registration will be classified by the questionnaire arrangement into the five classes. Those in class I, determined as available for service, will be sent immediately to an army training camp pursuant to federal call. When they are used up the rest will be sent in small or large detachments.

ALL "BABY DRAFT"
BEFORE YEAR ENDS

According to Secretary of War Baker and Provost Marshal E. H. Crowder, all of the "baby draft" in class I will be called into service before the end of the year. So that whether or not a man is called now or later makes little difference, or at most a difference of only a few months. Consequently a man who is called in today's drawing in all probability will meet his neighbor called three or four months from now at the same training camp before the end of the year.

The draft boards will start segregating the registrants by questionnaires, as soon as the papers begin to come in. The men will be classified by the local boards under the questionnaire system. All of the youths whose numbers were drawn today will be assigned to the various five classes on the basis of information furnished in the questionnaires new being mailed out. The new registrations will be placed at the foot of the list in each class in their respective districts in the order in which their numbers are drawn today.

In that respect only will today's drawing affect the registrants.

Statements made recently by Provost Marshal Crowder and Secretary Baker indicate that all of the new registrants placed in class I will be called before the end of the year. According to the provost marshal, the men will not be called more than a few months before the end of the year. According to the secretary of war, the men will be called before the end of the year.

It is now established that the American aviator who lost his way on Monday and landed in Switzerland is Lieutenant James A. Swenson, of Chicago.
He has been interned.

Caproni Has
Giant Plane
To Cross Sea

NEW YORK, June 27.—Singer Carpent the Italian airplane inventor, already has a machine capable of flying across the Atlantic and is ready to send it to this country, or to build one here, according to his plans, the executive committee of the Aero Club of America has been advised by Lieutenant Bolton, of the Royal Italian Flying Corps. Hundreds of aviators, he declared, would willingly undertake the attempt.

The plan, it was stated after the meeting, will be laid before the proper government officials in Washington, with the recommendation that Signor Caproni's offer be formally accepted.

French Profiteer
Held for Extradition
WASHINGTON, June 27.—Frank J. Godsoi, a French subject, held here on charges of the French government that he profited several millions of dollars on motor truck contracts, was held today by the District Court for extradition to France.

THE NUMBERS IN ORDER DRAWN AT WASHINGTON

In the list printed below the order numbers are given over each ten figures. The draftee, after finding his number, may determine the order in which it was drawn by counting from the first of the paragraph in which it is included. Thus if a man's number is below sub-heading 121 to 130 and is fifth in the paragraph, his number will be 125.

The drawing of draft numbers today has no significance whatsoever in determining when the registrant will be called for service. There is a number drawn for every man who registered as being twenty-one years old on June 5, last, and at that time The TRIBUNE published the names of those registering.

The order in which the registrants will be called to the colors will be determined when the questionnaires are received, at which time the draft boards will make the classifications. At that time it is possible that the man who held the first number drawn today will be placed in Class Five which will mean that he will be among the last called to the colors.

CEREMONY MARKS 2ND U. S. DRAFT LOTTERY

Secretary Baker Draws First Number From Big Bowl and Senator Chamberlain Takes Second; Notables Present

246 IS FIRST NUMBER DRAWN

Celebrities Take Pellets From Container; Opening Delayed by Famous Ones; 1200
Names in Bowl Out in Order

WASHINGTON, June 27.—America's second draft lottery to fill the gaps in the various divisions of the active army began at 9:36 today. The first number drawn was 246, taken from the 1200 in the big bowl by Secretary of War Baker. All holding in take few places at the bottom of the existing lists.

Senator Chamberlain, as chairman of the Senate military affairs committee, drew the second number, 1168.
Because of its high position it was undoubtedly a blank in every district. In rapid succession thereafter numbers were drawn by the celebrities as follows:

Senator Warren drew number 518;
Representative Dent drew 1091; Representative Kahn drew 479; General March drew 469; General Crowder drew 492; Colonel Warren drew 154; Colonel Easby-Smith drew 529; Major Kramer drew 353.

Although 8:30 was the hour set for drawing of the first number there was the usual delay owing to the tardiness of notables who had been invited to be present.

LITTLE OF THE EARLIER EXCITEMENT

The first number in the regular drawing was by Miss Welborn, who drew number 580. America's class of 1918 stood at attention to the numbers assigned to each young man attaining his majority in the year ended last June 5 were drawn.

Historic events of a little less than a year ago were repeated as from a large glass bowl in a committee room of the Senate office building were drawn the numbers representing 744, 500 youths, the majority of whom will be drafted in the coming year.
The names of the youths were enrolled in the forces fighting for democracy and against Prussianism.

Secretary Baker, members of the Senate and House Military Committees and other high government officials witnessed the drawing by blindfolded men of the little capsules from the bowl, each of the capsules containing a "master number" to be applied in the 4500 registration districts of the country, according to the total registration.

The setting for the lottery was a duplicate of that of July 20, last, when the drawing of 10,500 numbers determined the liability for services of approximately ten million men. In the country-at-large there was little of the excitement that attended the first drawing. A year of war had served to calm the American people. The lack of excitement, however, was largely occasioned by the fact that today's drawing was fraught with only slight significance, owing to the questionnaire method of classifications.

LATE ARRIVALS
DELAY DRAWING

The first few numbers to be drawn were taken from the bowl shortly after 9:30 o'clock by Secretary Baker.
Later attaches of the office of Provost Marshal General Crowder were blindfolded and withdrew the capsules from the bowl. As the numbers were drawn they were announced and written on a large blackboard. When the blackboard was filled it was removed to be photographed and another substituted. This operation was repeated during the more than three hours required for the drawing.

In comparison with the 10,500 numbers required to be drawn a year ago, only 1200 numbers were drawn today.
The district having the largest number of men to register, June 5 reported somewhat less than 1000 registrants.
To provide for late registrants and emergencies it was decided to draw 1200 numbers. In the larger number of the districts, however, only the lower numbers will apply.

Official lists of the numbers as drawn based on the photographs taken of the blackboards will be sent within a few days to all local draft boards to be used in placing the men when the questionnaires have been returned.

The "master numbers" drawn today apply to the numbers on the registration cards of the registrants. In the drawing of a year ago serial numbers were assigned, but this was deemed unnecessary in the present drawing.

ROME, June 27.—During a celebration of the Italian success on the Piave today a crowd rushed to Ca-pitoline Hill and burst into the Caffarelli Palace, which before the war was the seat of the German embassy and which is still German property. All portraits of the German Emperor were torn down and the Italian flag was hoisted over the building.

VIENNA, June 27.—Italian troops yesterday made another attempt to storm Col Del Rosso, between the Brenta and Asiago, which the Austrians captured in their recent offensive, according to today's war office report. The enemy was repulsed with heavy losses, the announcement states.

LONDON, June 27.—The capture of a strong German post on the Flanders front was announced by the war office today. Prisoners and machine guns were taken in the fighting, which centered around Vieux Bercequin.
There was gas shelling in the sector of Thiéppe forest.

The text of the war office report follows: "By a successful minor operation last night we gained possession of a hostile strong point west of Vieux Bercequin and captured a number of prisoners and some machine guns.
Hostile artillery has been active at present points between Ginchey and Robergh and with gas shells on the northern portion of Nieppe forest."

"It will be difficult for the Austrians to undertake another offensive against Italy in grand style for themselves."
This message was received at the Italian embassy this afternoon in an official cablegram from Rome, which confirms the declaration of Austria in the recent Austrian offensive. According to Italian headquarters, the Austrian losses from June 15 to June 22 totaled sixteen divisions, or 200, 000 men.

The cablegrams report Austrian claims of heavy Italian losses as "absurd."

PARIS, June 27.—Artillery activity developed south of the Aisne river during the night in the sector of Couvres and in the Vosges mountains.
The war office announced today. The French made three raids, capturing prisoners.

HUN AEROPLANES
DRIVEN FROM PARIS

No damage was done by the German aeroplane which raided Paris last night, according to the Petit Parisien's report of the German attempt at an air bombardment. It appears, says the Matin, that there were two groups of the Gothas. The greater part of them had to change the direction of their flight because of the vigorous barrage fire, and in the effort to regain their base safely got rid of their bombs rapidly.

ROME, June 27.—Italian forces made further gains on the lower Piave, taking 600 prisoners. It was semi-officially announced today.

CZAREVITCH DEAD.
COPENHAGEN REPORT.

LONDON, June 27.—It is rumored in Copenhagen that the czarvitch, former heir to the Russian throne, is dead, said an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Copenhagen.

Alexander Kerensky, former Russian premier, stated today that he was going to Paris before leaving Europe for America.

Kerensky told friends there are definite indications that order will speedily be re-established in Russia, with the aid of the allies and America, resulting in the creation of an "east front" again.

He said it is positive that Russia is ready to join the allies as soon as the yoke of Bolshevism is thrown off.
Kerensky sent America this message through the United Press:

"Russia counts on the full aid of America at this moment of supreme cannot say now in what way America can best aid Russia. I am coming to explain the Russian situation for you.

I hope to do this soon."

but to have the widest power along all lines, will be organized to deal with the economic side of the Russian problem, according to information from administration sources today.
This bureau would deal directly with the problem of the commercial rehabilitation of Russia, would arrange ter the aid which the United States and the allies have now decided will be needed to wrest Russia from German control.

BERKELEY SOCIALIST JAILED AT FARGO, N. D.

Walter Thomas Mills, local Socialist lecturer and teacher, for many years a prominent figure about Berkeley, is under arrest in North Dakota, according to word received here today. Mills was arrested by the United States authorities following a speech made in connection with the state primaries there, in which, during his advocacy of Socialistic doctrines, he is accused of having made remarks designed to obstruct the draft and oppose the carrying on of the war.

Mrs. Mills left the Mills home in Thousand Oaks several days ago and is believed to be on her way to North Dakota now. Her son, a high school student, is with her.

Mills was the head of a small school of political economy on Allston way, wherein he taught socialistic views on economics. He is better known, however, as a lecturer and writer. His is the author of a book, "The Struggle for Existence," that is widely known and another work on economics.

He lectured for the Democratic party before becoming a Socialist, and since then has toured England, New Zealand and Australia on lecture trips. He is a former member of the state Socialist executive committee and figured some years ago in a dispute with J. Edgar Wilson, former Berkeley mayor, when Wilson was opposed by a faction, led by Mills, in the Berkeley party when he ran for a second election.

The complaint on which Mills was arrested charged that, while speaking at Fargo in the interest of certain non-partisan candidates prior to yesterday's primary election, he made utterances with the intent to cause insubordination, disloyalty, mutiny and refusal of duty in the military and naval forces of the United States. Mills was taken before a commissioner and released on $2000 bonds. His case will come before the federal grand jury at Fargo in a short time.

The Kaiser has been having since the speeches of the chancellor and the German foreign secretary have become public.

The Amsterdam correspondent of the Berliner Zeitung writes that the Kaiser has given his consent to Dr. von Kuehlmann to resign as foreign secretary, since he has incurred the enmity of General von Ludendorff.

The Deutsche Zeitung prints a warm comment on von Kuehlmann's speech, calling him a "defeated, a traitor and an ally of the international Socialists."

STRANGE ARMED SHIP SEEN OFF VIRGINIA CAPES

AN ATLANTIC PORT, June 27.—Incoming steamers report a strange craft, low-lying and armed with five-inch guns, between 150 and 200 miles off the Virginia capes. The master of an incoming vessel saw the mysterious stranger last Saturday and reports that it followed his steamer, but kept out of range of his defense guns, which had been made ready for use. Officials say that they have no definite reports on the vessel, which may have been either an enemy raider or submarine mother ship.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The Navy Department has nothing to make public on reports telling of a mysterious craft off the Virginia capes. The report is being investigated. It is understood that the naval officers in charge of the coast defense do not believe there are any German submarines off this coast now.

Governor Shortens Speeder's Sentence

SANTA ANA, June 27.—W. J. Turch, a Los Angeles fish dealer, who has been serving a sentence of ten days in jail here for speeding, was granted a commutation of sentence today by Governor Stephens to five days and a fine of $50.

Turch was sentenced by Justice J. B. Cox after a plea of guilty. He appealed to the Superior Court and thence to the District Court of Appeal and his conviction was affirmed. Governor Stephens refused to interfere while the case was in court. The governor said he acted because Turch's concern has certain war contracts and needs his services.

LONDON, June 27.—The Italians have already buried 14,000 Austrians on the two salients on the right of the Piave, where violent fighting had taken place, said a wireless despatch from Rome today. The Austrians vented their fury at being defeated upon the residents of Friuli, seizing DR. VOY KUEHLMANN MAY BE REMOVED

The removal from office of Dr. Richard von Kuehlmann, the German foreign secretary, can be anticipated. Judging from comments in conservative and Pan-German newspapers in his Reichstag speech, the Berlin correspondent of the Frankfurter Zeitung says, according to a Central News despatch from Amsterdam.

AMSTERDAM, June 27.—It was reported from Vienna today that Count Taruca, an intimate friend of the Austrian emperor, probably will be the next Austrian premier.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—E. J. Presper, medical reserve corps, attached to British expeditionary forces, is a prisoner of war in Germany. He lived in Philadelphia. Private Edward W. Bruner, of New Haven, Conn., also is reported a prisoner.

ROME, June 27.—An Austrian advance post in the mountain region was surprised by Italian troops yesterday and wiped out, the war office announced today. Along the front as a whole, the activity yesterday was nowhere of marked intensity.

WORLD TO HEAR WILSON SPEECH FOURTH OF JULY

WASHINGTON, June 27.—President Wilson's "Fourth of July speech," which is expected to deal, in part at least, with international affairs, may be read at Independence day celebrations throughout the country simultaneously with its delivery by the President at Mount Vernon.

It became known today that the committee on public information, through which the speech will be given out, has under consideration plans to furnish it in advance to postmasters, through whom it would be transmitted to four-minute speakers or others in charge of Fourth of July exercises in various cities and towns. The committee also may cable the message to foreign countries to be read there the same day.

KUEHLMANN TO LOSE HIS JOB FOR WAR TALK

LONDON, June 27.—It is reported in Berlin that Dr. von Kuehlmann, the German foreign secretary, has been asked to resign as a result of his war aims speeches, said an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Copenhagen today, giving the Lokal Anzeiger as its authority. The German conservative press is demanding the removal of the foreign secretary.

NOTABLES DRAW FIRST NUMBERS

Today's drawing was to determine only the relative summoning to the colors of the new registrants as finally classified by the local boards under the questionnaire system. All of the youths whose numbers were drawn today will be assigned to the various five classes on the basis of information furnished in the questionnaires now being mailed out. The new registrations will be placed at the foot of the list in each class in their respective districts in the order in which their numbers are drawn today. In that respect only will today's drawing affect the registrants.

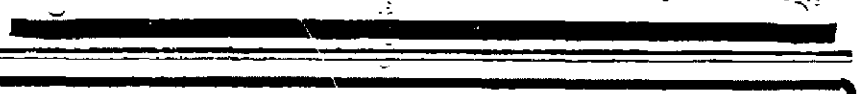

Statements made recently by Provost Marshal General Crowder and Secretary Baker indicate that all of the new registrants placed in class 1 will be called before the end of the year. Accordingly not more than a few months will elapse at the most between the calling of men in class 1 whose numbers are among those drawn first and those whose numbers are among the last to be taken from the bowl.

HAVRE, June 27. (Havas Agency).—The municipal council of Havre has decided to hold a monster celebration July 4 in honor of the Americans.

Don't Poison Baby.

Forty years ago almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many a baby who has been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without your or your physician's knowledge of what it is composed of. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, it is the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

MOTHER AND 2 CHILDREN JOIN THOSE MISSING

Taking her two small children with her, Mrs. Violet Rozells, 22 years of age, is missing from her home at 2323 Adeline street, according to a report made to the police today by her husband, John R. Rozells. Before leaving, Mrs. Rozells penned a note which read: "Bills are all our troubles; pay them and be happy." Rozells declared his belief that his wife has gone to Los Angeles, where her mother lives. She had about $40 with her. The children are 5 and 3 years of age.

With the list of missing women and girls increasing nearly every day, the police have been besieged with requests for assistance in locating them.

Captain of Inspectors Green stated today that each case is receiving every attention that the department can give. The descriptions of the girls are sent out to all stations and to every patrolman so that a watch is kept for them in every section of the city.

"Beyond this there is little the department can do," said Captain Green. "If there are any peculiar circumstances surrounding the individual cases we check up on all clues. In most cases, however, the missing persons are located within a few days or they return to their homes."

Most puzzling of the numerous cases is that of Marie Viola Sims, who disappeared from her home at 1431 Second avenue on June 19, leaving a note to the effect that she intended to jump into the estuary. No trace of her has been found, despite a wide search by her family and the police.

Yesterday Mrs. Emma Phipps of 718 Brush street, and Myrtle Anderson, 12 years of age, of 911 Thirty-seventh street, were reported missing. Others missing since June 9 include:

Mildred Billings, 16 years old, of 349 East Eighth street, who disappeared on June 5; Dorothy Viola Townner, 17, of 1970 Telegraph avenue, who disappeared on June 9; Jennie Burgess, 14, who disappeared from her home at 2330 Linden street on June 22; Minnie Fraters, 14, of 2025 Twenty-third avenue, who disappeared on June 11, and Constanta Floresku, 25, of 513 Eighth street, who disappeared on June 18.

SAN JOSE SHOW TO SET RECORD

"This year's annual California Round-up at San Jose will eclipse even last year's great exhibition. This year we will have more bucking horses, more famous riders, many new features and real thrills for every spectator every ten seconds."

This is the message brought to Oakland today by Louis Oneal, president of the California Roundup Association of San Jose, who headed 500 enthusiastic round-up boosters in a parade through the principal streets of Oakland. The parade brought a gallop of round-up colors with them, most of which was in the multi-colored shirts worn by the many riders in the pageant which they staged to advertise the show.

The delegation came to Oakland from San Francisco, where they paraded down Market street this morning, and where they had luncheon this noon at the Palace hotel. They made the trip from San Jose in automobile, shipping the horses aboard. They brought a big band, plenty of literature and sales of enthusiasm.

In addition to a large number of real cowboys, who are to ride bucking horses and do other daring stunts in the parade, there also were many pretty girls and women riders, some of them real cowgirls and others the wives and daughters of round-up association members.

According to President Oneal, bucking horses are to be the big feature of this year's program, to be staged for four days, July 4 to 7, and in order to give plenty of entertainment, more than 100 bucking horses, all of them noted "outlaws" already have been secured.

The War Department Commission on Training Camp activities will be the beneficiary at this year's roundup program. Last year the event was given for the Red Cross.

DRAFTEE SHOT IN FOOT; ASKS PROBE

MARYSVILLE, June 27.—At the request of the Yuba county exemption board, the authorities are investigating the shooting of Jesse Carlisle Harris, 23, one of the fifty-five Yuba county draftees who were ordered to appear here for induction for military service.

Harris was shot through the instep of the right foot with a .38-caliber revolver as he was lying in bed at his home. The claim was made by Harris' wife that the wound was inflicted accidentally when the revolver she had just taken from a grip was discharged while she was holding it in her hands.

The exemption board reported the matter to Chief of Police A. C. Smith. Secretary E. B. Wilcox of the exemption board today announced that the board has a witness who informed it that the boy made the remark that he "would be shot before he would go into the army."

Harris asked for deferred classification on the ground that he had a dependent wife to support. He was married a few days before his questioning reached him. The board denied the claim.

Flyer Pat O'Brien To Tell Experiences

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—Patrick O'Brien, who smiles out at you from all the windows, bidding you be at his lecture at Dreamland Rink next Tuesday, when he will tell how he qualified as the first American member of the Escaped Officers Club of London, is none other than the same Pat O'Brien of Richmond, who used to furnish the steam that pulled you on the Richmond-Stockton run. And the friend whom he chuckles around with now on his return is Frank Hanson, the engineer on that run.

O'Brien cut the career of a civilian the moment the Lusitania was sunk, and became a member of the British Royal Flying Corps. On his trip home to the bay he wears the uniform of a lieutenant. In the service he developed such great skill that he numbered an even dozen Hun flyers to his credit before they got him. And when he was captured he made a thrilling escape from a German train and worked his way out of Europe. He will tell his experiences in a series of lectures.

Underweights Put Hope in Gulf Food

NEW ORLEANS, June 27.—Some of the young men, informed by army and navy doctors that they were underweight, have hied themselves to the Gulf coast and explained to hotel or boarding house proprietors that the duration of the war depended upon their gaining so many pounds in a certain length of time. At first some of the boarding house and hotel proprietors were unenthusiastic over the prospects of a disappointed would-be soldier or sailor, but of patronage to their establishment later, according to those who have returned, whenever a youth, rather pale and slim, applied for board he was greeted with the question, "How much do you have to gain and when must you report?" "It's easy when you know how," one boarding house proprietor explained. "They go out and swim in the salt water, get an enormous appetite and we feed them coarse, nourishing food, nothing fancy. They gain several pounds a day, some of them."

IN NAVAL FLYING CORPS.

Harry E. Smith, employee of the Southern Pacific, has enlisted in the Naval Flying Corps. He left Oakland today for Gulfport, Miss., where he has been called for active service.

Oregon "Live Wires" Are to Pick Cherries

SALEM, Ore., June 27.—The "Live Wires," a class of young people, some of them married, of the Sunday school of the Leslie Methodist church here, will go into the orchards to pick cherries

Saturday afternoon and all day Sunday, as long as there are cherries to be picked. The teacher of the class will have charge of the work. The class consists of nearly fifty young people, many of whom already are away at work for the summer. The rest will show their patriotism by foregoing their customary rest day.

WAREHOUSE RATE IS TO BE RAISED

Dates are to be raised for handling warehouse goods along the Sacramento river and terminals in Oakland and San Francisco, according to the decision of the Railroad Commission, affecting the Lawrence Warehouse company of this city, the Associated Terminals in Yolo county and warehouses operating in San Francisco.

The new rates allowed by the commission are as follows:
Ton rates: Unloading, car, 50 cents (packages 150 pounds or less), 45 cents (packages over 150 pounds), 40 cents (packages over 150 pounds, weighing, 40 cents, handling, and from a warehouse 34 cents; loading, car, 30 cents (packages 150 pounds or less), 45 cents (packages over 150 pounds).

Last May the commission authorized these warehouses to increase their rates for handling and weighing commodities at the different warehouses at San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento and in Yolo county opposite Sacramento. These increases were granted because of the increased labor costs, and because the laborers demanded an eight-hour day. Because of the strike among their employees the companies were obliged to pay the employees $4 a day for a nine-hour day, and commencing June 1, 1915, 50 cents an hour or $4.00 for a nine-hour day. The adjustment of this strike was brought about by the intervention of Federal Food Commissioner Merritt, with an understanding between the warehousemen and their employees that $4 for an eight-hour day and 75 cents an hour for all overtime would be given further consideration in a supplemental application to the commission.
It is the contention of the supple-

N. Y. Syndicate Takes Over Big Rail Bond

NEW YORK, June 27.—A syndicate headed by Kuhn, Loeb & Co. has taken up a $20,000,000 bond issue of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, it is announced here. This is the first large railroad financing operation undertaken privately since the government assumed control of the transportation lines.

mental application of the war-houses that the increased rates just granted by the commission were only made to offset labor costs based on the $4 nine-hour day, and will not suffice under the labor costs now of $4.75 for a nine-hour day. At the hearing it was shown that during May, on the $4 for a nine-hour day basis, the deficit of six of the warehouses was $8,507, which does not include insurance, light, power, etc.

The sentence will be served at the federal prison on McNeil Island, Washington.

Correct Lubrication for the Valve-in-Head Type Engine

Our illustration shows a typical Valve-in-Head type engine—one of the several types of automobile engines popular today. Engines of this type, like all internal combustion engines, require an oil that maintains its full lubricating qualities at cylinder heat, burns clean in the combustion chambers and goes out with exhaust. ZEROLENE fills these requirements perfectly, because it is correctly refined from selected California asphalt-base crude.

ZEROLENE is made in several consistencies to meet with scientific exactness the lubrication needs of all types of automobile engines. Get our "Correct Lubrication Chart" covering your car. At dealers everywhere and Standard Oil Service Stations.

Experts Say, "Zerolene Is Better"

Why are the majority of cars now lubricated with ZEROLENE? Because—ZEROLENE does hold better compression, does give better protection to the moving parts, does deposit less carbon. And this is the testimony of the leading automobile distributors of the Coast.

They know from the records of their service department—and we know from exhaustive tests—that ZEROLENE, correctly refined from selected California asphalt-base crude, gives perfect lubrication with less wear and less carbon deposit.

ZEROLENE is the correct oil for all types of automobile engines. It is the correct oil for your automobile. Get our lubrication chart showing the correct consistency for your car.

OAKLAND WOMAN IS DOING HER PART

Feels It a Duty to Let People Know About Medicine
That Helped Her.

Mrs. Rose Phillips of 1301 Adelphi street, is another well-known Oakland woman whose deep sense of gratitude and desire to benefit others, will not permit her to remain silent regarding the wonderful results she has obtained from the use of Tanlac. In relating her experience with the medicine Mrs. Phillips said:

"Since Tanlac has done so much for me I can't help but tell of it to others who need it like I did. I had been suffering from stomach trouble for nearly two years, which had taken on the form of gas and bloating. I would eat and feel full, but after eating I would feel as if I had a heavy weight on my stomach. I couldn't lay on my left side at night on account of the gas pressure about my heart, which made it difficult for me to breathe. I had severe pains between my shoulders and neck, and I could not sleep on account of my nervousness and misery. I would get up tired and worn out in the mornings and that feeling would stay with me all during the day. I could not do my housework and wasn't able even to use the broom. My appetite left me and I got better than I needed to eat as my food would make me sick. I was so very nervous the least unusual noise would upset me and I realized that all my strength and energy had left me.

"All my efforts to find relief failed and I had about decided not to try anything else. But somehow the Tanlac testimonials appealed to me, and while I have been taking this medicine only about two weeks the results have been wonderful already. I can eat now without having that bloated, distressed feeling after meals. I sleep at night as peacefully as a child and feel strong and full of energy. My tired, worn-out feelings are gone and I can attend to my household duties better than I could in a long time. I have no pain now, my nerves are in fine shape and every day I can feel more improvement. Tanlac is the only thing that ever helped me, so I am going to keep on taking it for awhile and am glad to do my part in letting others know about it.

Here is another instance of the wonderful reconstructive powers of Tanlac. Mrs. Phillips is only one of many thousands who have taken it with the same gratifying results. Tanlac proved of great benefit to her because it contains medicinal properties which enrich the blood and promote a healthy appetite for nourishing food, thus helping to build up health and strength in the natural way. Tanlac has been very successful in overcoming nervousness and sleeplessness, not from a quieting effect on the nerves, for it has no such effect, but by strengthening the nerves and body and bringing back the normal state of health through its effect on the appetite and nutrition of the body. Genuine Tanlac made according to the latest improved formula, and bearing the name of G. F. Willis, International Dispensary, is the only one sold in Oakland by The Owl Drug Stores—Advertisement.

CAMP KEARNY IS GIVING NEW DRAFTEES 'O.O.'

CAMP KEARNY, SAN DIEGO, June 27.—Examination of men of the June California draft contingent, and arrivals of their fellows to undergo training here, continued today. Psychological examinations of the men continued today. The results of this examination being expected to give company commanders a basis on which they may select suitable recruits to become non-commissioned officers.

More than 3000 letters were written and mailed at the Y. M. C. A. building in the recruit camp last night, or rather more than one for each two men in camp. The recruits are being drilled along very definite lines, their program being balanced so that lecture periods alternate with drill or physical training work. The lectures, which are given by non-commissioned officers, cover all sorts of subjects, from "courtesy in conversation" to "care of the feet."

One lecture is devoted to the oath of enlistment and obedience which each soldier takes. Its meaning is made very plain by the lecturers. Carrying of sticks, recently ordered in both the 10th and 80th infantry brigades, is spreading to higher circles. The custom of carrying canes or riding crops is growing among officers here. These are said to aid in developing smartness and to serve as one more sign by which the recruits entering camp may recognize authority. Owing to the need of all non-commissioned officers to aid in training the recruits, several specialty schools have been suspended for a few days.

Seventeen Raider Victims Are Saved

HALIFAX, N. S., June 27.—Owners of a Halifax vessel which has arrived at Bermuda have received a cablegram stating that the ship, while going south, picked up an open boat at sea with seven survivors of a ship sunk by a German submarine. The name of the ship was not given in the despatch.

One of the programs offered for the entertainment of those who attend the Sons and Daughters of Washington Americanization meetings at Chabot Hall every week will be that planned for next Sunday. Six girls from the Berkeley cohort of the American Woman's Legion will go through the manual of arms. Three high school girls, representing the high army of the legion, will sing a "farm song."

Miss Byrd Mock will give a short talk on "Cooperation" and Natalie Ormsby will follow in a recitation of Kipling's "Cooperation." A song in Chinese will be sung by Mrs. Lewis T. Hickey, tribune of the Berkeley cohort of the Woman's Legion. Mrs. Hickey is one of the few American women who speaks Chinese fluently. In answer to many requests of those who heard her last Sunday Mrs. Betty Chamberlain will sing "Silver Threads Among the Gold." A saxophone solo by Harris Holbrook and an address by J. P. Montgomery will complete the program.

Twelve dairymaids are wanted to take a course in scientific dairy work at the state farm at Davis. Mrs. Helen Power of the Oakland branch of the state employment bureau has received instructions to secure this number of dairy students, who will be taught the most scientific method of milking cows, churning butter and making cheese. They will be limited to those who desire to follow the vocation upon the completion of the course. Tuition will be free, the only expense being board and clothing, which includes a pair of overalls. Another call for fifty families to pick berries at Sebastopol has been sent out by the state employment bureau.

Sold at Right Prices and Fitted by an Expert

Some things are easy to buy. For example: Thermos bottles, kodaks, Waterman fountain pens. These articles are all sold at all stores at about the same price. You can get exactly what you are getting and can check up the price at other stores if you choose.

Other merchandise is extremely difficult to buy. This is especially true of trusses, supporters, rubber bandages, etc.

In buying this kind of merchandise you are compelled to trust the dealer. The result is that unscrupulous concerns take advantage of the public by making enormous profits on these lines.

For example we have heard of cases where articles of this character costing only a couple of dollars wholesale have been sold for $15 or $20.

Fabled mystery, startling symptoms of horrible diseases, a clerk with a store title of "Doctor" and an ignorant frightened customer make possible a wonderfully profitable sale in some places.

At Bowman's you pay only a regular legitimate profit; you find standard, staple articles of known merit marked in plain figures and you are waited upon by a clerk (we employ a man and a woman in this department), who know their business and how to fit these appliances properly.

If a physician's attention to your case is necessary we advise you to that effect. You are safe at Bowman's and in buying appliances of this kind.

OLD-FASHIONED SUGAR COATED CATHARTIC PILLS

"I don't want these new-fangled remedies," said one of our customers. "Give me an old-fashioned cathartic."

We give him a cathartic which we have been selling since 1878—over 40 years. This is the old sugar-coated pills just as they were always made. When a remedy keeps in demand for 40 years, without advertising it must have merit.

We have a great many calls for these old-fashioned Compound Cathartic Pills.

USE THE RIGHT INK IN YOUR WATERMAN

Feed It Right and You'll Be Trouble Free

Did you ever notice how the ink thickens and dries and accumulates around the point of an old-fashioned pen?

And how after a while the pen rusts and becomes useless?

Do you use this inferior old-fashioned pen ink in your Waterman?

If you do then you must expect trouble because no fountain pen was ever made to be a purifier of poor ink.

Bad ink is not particular about the kind of pen it clogs. It just as willingly ruins a $50 dollar gold Christmas present pen as it does a man as it does a penny steel point in a penny wooden handle. If you will always use Waterman fountain pen ink in a Waterman pen and be careful what you sign you'll never get into trouble as far as your Waterman is concerned.

As Waterman agents we will be glad to advise and help you upon all points pertaining to Waterman pens and service.

CURE POISON OAK
Poison oak is life!
Look out, or you'll get it!

The "Safety First" method is to add a bottle of Taylor's Poison Oak Lotion and rub it upon your face and hands (especially your wrists) before exposing yourself. This plan usually saves you from taking it.

If you become afflicted the best remedy we have ever known of is this self-same lotion. Sometimes it cures a light case in a few days. People who are continually troubled with poison oak tell us that Taylor's Poison Oak Lotion is a wonderful remedy. It assuredly has a wonderful sale and lots and lots of friends—23c. Many housewives are eager to use bran, but they have unfamiliar recipes. I will repeat the same recipes so often that they grow weary of it. Barley is one of the most flavorful of all the grains and can be served in an infinite variety of ways. It can be used for soups or making soups, in making meat loaf and sweet pudding, and serves as well as an excellent breakfast food served plain cooked with sugar and cream. PEEL OFF CALLUSES WITH THE FINGERS

"Hard skin" or callus spots on the toes or the bottom of the feet peel right off without pain or soreness. After you apply a little Freezone, says Cincinnati authority, This either draws loosens the dead, yellow, callused skin so it peels off with the fingers.

A quarter ounce of Freezone costs but a few cents at any pharmacy, but is sufficient to remove every corn or callus from one's feet. This is the only way to free the rest from blains and calluses without sore-ness, danger or infection.

 After the corn or cal-

SUGAR RULES EFFECTIVE ON 1ST OF JULY

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Regulations for carrying out the new restrictions upon sugar consumption by commercial users, effective July 1, are made public by the Food Administration. The new restrictions, it has been announced, will apportion the 1,800,000 tons of sugar in sight for the six months beginning July 1 on the basis of three pounds per capita monthly in order to supply the needs of the army and of the American troops. The apportionment is about double the compulsory sugar ration of England, France and Italy.

Commercial users of sugar will receive their supply under a certificate system administered by George A. Zabriskie, recently appointed sugar administrator. No manufacturer, wholesaler or retailer will be permitted to sell sugar to any one except to householders unless a certificate issued by the local Food Administrator is presented. Retailers may sell not more than two pounds at one time to a town customer, nor five pounds at one sale to a country customer. Commercial customers are divided into five groups.

Candy makers, soft drinks and soda fountains, chewing gum, chocolate, cocoa, tobacco, flavoring extracts, invert sugar, syrups, sweet pickles and manufacturers, wines, etc., will be allowed 50 per cent of their normal supply, with the exception of ice cream manufacturers, who may receive 75 per cent.

Commercial canners of vegetables, fruit and milk and manufacturers of medicine, explosives and glycerine will be allowed sufficient for their necessary requirements.

Hotels, restaurants, clubs, dining-cars and all public houses who take care of 25 or more persons may purchase three pounds for each ninety meals served.

Bakers will be allowed 70 per cent of the average amount used during June, 1918. Retail stores will receive for July quantities based on the average for the months of April, May and June, 1918, combined.

An attempt to accumulate stocks prior to July 1 will be construed as hoarding, the regulations state. All stocks in excess of three months will be requisitioned, and all consumers in the five groups are required to notify food administrators of the amount of sugar they hold or have in transit prior to July 1.

Cords Is Fighting For His Life Won't Admit That Wife Shot Him

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—Robert F. Cords, wealthy businessman and promoter and widely known about town, is fighting for his life today and his wife is accused of having shot him in their apartment in the Fairmont Hotel. So far Cords has not admitted that his wife shot him, and further than her first cry, "I shot to kill," when she was confronted by hotel attaches. Mrs. Cords has refused to discuss the tragedy.

Mrs. Cords was arraigned and instructed by Police Judge Morris Oppenheim, and the preliminary hearing continued until July 5. Mrs. Cords was then admitted to $5000 bail, which was put up in cash by her attorney, and she left the courtroom without making a statement.

Cords was wounded four times, one of the bullets having struck high in the chest, two high on the shoulder and one inflicting a slight wound in the arm. His physicians believe that he will recover unless complications set in.

It was around 6 o'clock last evening that guests on the same floor with Cords heard revolver shots and notified the hotel office. A moment later Cords walked up to Manager Baker's desk and said, "I am shot pretty badly. I think you had better get me quick to a hospital."

SMOKING CIGAR.

Cords was smoking a cigar and apparently was unconcerned. He pulled back his coat and showed a bullet hole in his chest. "I am hit in the right shoulder, too," he said.

Cords was rushed to the St. Francis Hospital, swooning on the way. Later he was revived and his wife brought before him by Detective Frank Black. Cords immediately admonished his wife not to make any statement.

"Don't say a word, Joe," he ordered. "Don't admit anything."

Since that time both have "stood pat" on their determination not to talk.

MARRIED IN SACRAMENTO.

The Cords were married at Sacramento in July, 1913, and few days after Mrs. Cords had received her final decree of divorce from John Sheehy, Jr., a young San Francisco realty operator. Mrs. Cords, prior to her marriage to Sheehy, was Miss Alice Belyea, daughter of Patrolman James A. Belyea of the Mission street station. She met Cords after he had been divorced from an Oakland girl and while she was a member of the Nevada divorce colony.

During the early and middle part of this year, disagreements and domestic disturbances between the Cords reached the court. Mrs. Cords sued Cords for $750 a month separate maintenance, alleging intimacy with other women, intoxication and abuse, and a refusal to support her. Mrs. Cords also obtained a restraining order from Judge E. P. Morgan, which prevented Cords from disposing of $50,000 in stock in the Western Telegraph Company.

Mrs. Cords has made only one statement in explanation of the mysterious shooting. That was when her father arrived at the police station and took her in his arms. The woman went into hysterics and vouchsafed just a word as to the motives in the matter.

"The first discord came into our married life on the second day of last month," she said, "and it was due to an infatuation for a young woman of this city. Our quarrel over my husband's infatuation for this young woman resulted in my filing a suit for separate maintenance. The case was dismissed Tuesday after my husband admitted to me that he had given a check for $7000 to the young woman in the case. He could not very well have denied it because I saw the canceled check. My husband also admitted that he gave this young woman articles of jewelry. Further than that I will not discuss my troubles. My attorneys have advised me not to do so."

Shelter Shed Order Is Opposed by S. P.

On the ground that to build the shelter shed, ordered in East Oakland by the railroad commission, it would be necessary to move a block tower and arrange the road's signal system, the Southern Pacific has filed a petition asking that the order of January in which the shed was demanded, be laid over.

The shelter shed, near Twenty-third avenue, was ordered by the commission after an investigation of conditions there, and the order, according to the commission, carried with it instructions to move the signal tower if necessary. The road holds that the shed is unnecessary and would be a useless expense.

The matter is again under consideration by the commission.

What is the matter with my Skin?

Take your mirror to the window and examine your skin closely. See just what is the matter with it. Then read how you can change it and why

IF YOUR SKIN is not as fresh, clear and radiant as you would like it to be, it can be changed. This is why.

Your skin, like the rest of your body, is constantly changing. As old skin dies, new forms. By the correct external treatment you can make this new skin just what you would love to have it. Or, by neglecting to give it proper care as it forms every day, you can keep it in its present condition and forfeit the charm of "A skin you love to touch."

Which will you do? Will you commence at once to bring to your skin the charm you have longed for? Then begin tonight the treatment suited to your needs, and make it a regular habit thereafter. Use it persistently and your complexion cannot help showing a marked improvement—a promise of that greater clearness, freshness and charm which the daily use of Woodbury's will bring.

Is your complexion marred by conspicuous nose pores? Complexions otherwise flawless are often ruined by conspicuous nose pores. These show that the small muscular fibres of the nose have become weakened and do not keep the pores closed as they should be. Such cases need the hot water and lather treatment described here.

Blackheads are a confession that you are using the wrong method of cleansing for your type of skin. The treatment given here will free you from this annoyance.

Perhaps your particular trouble is disfiguring blemishes. Skin specialists are tracing fewer and fewer such troubles to the blood—more to bacteria and parasites that are carried into the pores with dust, soot and grime. Skin blemishes will yield to the effective "soap cream" treatment.

To rouse a sluggish, colorless skin, you must apply the correct treatment. See what a fresh clear color this "ice" treatment will bring to your skin.

Is your hair soft, and lustrous? To make your hair lovely, you must keep your scalp as clean and clear as you keep the pores of your skin. See what an improvement this shampoo treatment will make the first time you use it.

Begin tonight to get the benefit of this specialist's soap for your skin and hair

Woodbury's Facial Soap is the work of a skin specialist. For thirty years, John H. Woodbury made a constant study of the skin and its needs. He treated thousands of obstinate skin diseases, made countless skin tests, until he evolved the formula for Woodbury's Facial Soap. You will find a 25c cake sufficient for a month or six weeks of any Woodbury treatment and for general cleansing use for that time. Woodbury's is for sale at drug stores and toilet goods counters throughout the United States and Canada—wherever toilet goods are sold.

Send 5c for trial size cake and complete treatment booklet

Send 5c today and we will send you a trial size cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap, large enough for a week's use, and a booklet containing Woodbury skin treatments for all ordinary skin troubles, together with many valuable facts about the care of the skin. Or for 12c, we will send you, in addition to these, samples of Woodbury's Facial Cream and Facial Powder. Send today. Address The Andrew Jergens Co., 9250 Spring Grove Avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio.

If you live in Canada, address The Andrew Jergens Co., Limited, 9250 Sherbrooke St., Perth, Ontario

Conspicuous nose pores—how to reduce them

Dip a cloth in very hot water; lather it with Woodbury's Facial Soap, then hold it to your face. When heat has expanded the pores, rub in very gently a fresh lather of Woodbury's. Repeat this hot water and lather application several times, stopping at once if your nose feels sensitive. Then finish by rubbing the nose for thirty seconds with a lump of ice. Notice the improvement the very first treatment makes—a promise of what its steady use will do. Use this treatment persistently. It will gradually reduce the enlarged pores until they are inconspicuous.

Skin blemishes—how to get rid of them

Just before retiring, wash in your usual way with warm water and Woodbury's Facial Soap, finishing with a dash of cold water. Then dip the tips of your fingers in warm water and rub them on the cake of Woodbury's until they are covered with a heavy, cream-like lather. Cover each blemish with a thick coat of this and leave it on for ten or fifteen minutes. Then rinse very carefully with clear, hot water, then with cold. Use this treatment regularly. It will make your skin so strong and active that it will resist the frequent cause of blemishes and keep your complexion free from them.

How to keep your skin free from blackheads

Apply hot wet cloths to the face until the skin is reddened. Then with a rough wash cloth, work up a heavy lather of Woodbury's Facial Soap and rub it into the pores thoroughly—always with an upward and outward motion. Rinse with clear hot water, then with cold—the colder the better. Finish by rubbing the face briskly with a piece of ice after the cold water rinsing. Always dry the skin carefully. Make this treatment a daily habit and it will soon give you the clear, attractive skin that the steady use of Woodbury's always brings.

To rouse a sluggish, colorless skin

Dip your wash cloth in very warm water and hold it to your face. Now take the cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap, dip it in water and rub the cake itself over your skin. Leave the slight coating of soap on the skin for ten minutes, then dampen the skin and rub the soap in gently with an upward and outward motion. Rub the face thoroughly, first in tepid water, then in cold. If possible, rub your face for thirty seconds with a lump of ice. Dry the skin carefully. This treatment will make your skin fresher and clearer the first time you use it.

The right way to shampoo—how this treatment helps your hair

Before shampooing, rub the scalp thoroughly with the tips of the fingers (not the finger nails), making the scalp move in little circles. This loosens the dead cells and particles of dust and dandruff that clog up the pores. Now scrub the scalp with a stiff toothbrush lathered with Woodbury's Facial Soap. Rub the lather in well, then rinse it out. Then, apply a fresh hot lather of Woodbury's and leave it on for two minutes. Clear off with clear warm water, finishing with cold. Dry the hair very thoroughly.

SEATTLE PORT EXPERTS VIEW LOCAL HARBOR

As the guests of the city council and the Farr Terminals Company, Hamilton Hilday, port manager, and G. F. Richardson, chief engineer of the Seattle Port Commission, arrived in Oakland today to inspect the city's waterfront properties and the plans for commercial development. The guests were given a luncheon at the Hotel Oakland at noon, while the city council and the Chamber of Commerce and city officials.

Commissioner F. F. Morse of the public works department has planned an itinerary of entertainment which will include a launch tour of the waterfront and inspection of the big industrial and shipbuilding plants located along the estuary and under construction on the western front. They will be taken on top of the city hall to get a bird's-eye view of the city and its environs, which will give them a comprehensive idea of the entire situation.

Fred D. Parr, president of the Farr Terminals Company, through whose suggestion the Seattle men were invited to Oakland, said today the visit should result in a closer relationship between the two port cities and a thorough understanding of the mutual shipping advantages.

While Oakland is entering upon the most prosperous period in her history, it is important that we have the friendship of other great shipping centers," said Parr. "We desire that shipping men elsewhere have an understanding of our local conditions and our shipping facilities. We look for much benefit from our conference with the members of the Seattle port commission."

DINNER IS PLANNED.
HAYWARD, June 27.—The Hayward Chamber of Commerce is arranging a dinner for July 5. Similar get-together affairs are being held each month by the chamber, which was recently reconstituted for the purpose of conducting an energetic community development campaign.

PICTURES TO ADD INTEREST TO TALK

Illustrating his lecture on Friday evening at Hotel Oakland ball room, Dr. William Palmer Lucas, chief of the Children's Bureau, American Red Cross in France, will show many lantern slides and a motion picture film taken in France. This, it is said, vividly portrays the remarkable conditions under which the physicians and nurses of the American Red Cross are working in their efforts to save the "Children of France Under Fire."

The slides and film offer are expected to be a rare treat to those who attend for Dr. Lucas has just returned from France after ten months' active work, and the pictures which he brings are said to be unusual. For social workers, nurses and physicians of America as well as for the laymen and every patriotic citizen the lecture will hold a store of valuable information. The entire proceeds from Dr. Lucas' lecture will be devoted to the coming year's work of the Alameda County Anti-Tuberculosis Society in saving predisposed children from becoming a prey to tuberculosis, the great problem which now faces the European nations at war.

Many committees of social welfare and civic workers are busy disposing of tickets for the affair. Tickets are on sale also at Sherman & Clay's, and at Hotel Oakland.

BUY COAL NOW PLEA OF FUEL ADMINISTRATION

"Order coal now—or you may not get it."

That is the advice of the Federal coal administrator to all householders and coal buyers in Oakland. Summer buying is the only solution of the problem facing the fuel administration in distributing coal successfully.

"There is no reason in the world," says the official notice from the Fuel Administration, "why people of moderate means should not order their coal supply now. One hundred million people must be kept warm this winter and hundreds of thousands of factories must run. The demand is in excess of our transportation facilities."

"If you neglect your winter supply now you will put an unnecessary burden on the railroads."

Influenza Epidemic Attacks Hun Troops

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE June 27 (By the Associated Press).—German troops on the western front are suffering from an epidemic of grip, which incapacitates them for a week or ten days. There are also many cases of typhus and dysentery within the German lines southwest of Lure.

There is no evidence, however, that these illnesses are responsible for the postponement of the new offensive.

1918 TRIBUNE "Business and Professional Directory" mailed free to out-of-town subscribers on receipt of 1c for postage.

FOREST FIRES ARE GAINING HEADWAY

MARSHFIELD, Ore., June 27.—Forest fires in the Coos Bay country and extending south to the California line, have today assumed threatening proportions, and in many instances have spread from the timber into the brush. From some sections it is reported that grain fields are burning, set by sparks from the nearby timber.

Logging and lumber companies have shut down their camps and plants and have sent their crews out to fight fire. Many men have also gone from this city and North Bend into the timber belt to battle the flames. Several residences and barns have been caught in the rush of the fire.

To casualties have been reported.

"BEER" IS BROWN WATER.
NEW YORK, June 27.—German beer as now produced was characterized as "only brown water" by a Socialist deputy in a recent debate in the Reichstag, say German newspapers.

"Pep" Plays to Packed House Wool Fund Is Aided by Society

"Pep," the musical comedy produced for the benefit of the wool fund of the Oakland chapter of the Red Cross under the direction of Jack Reber, played to a packed house at the Auditorium theatre last night. Socially the night was the biggest of the season. The all star cast comprised the leaders in east bay society, many of whom made their debut at last night's performance.

Rivals for honors were Jack Martin, who surprised his friends with his natural talent as a thespian, and Arthur Hargrave, in a clever character role, which drew a laugh with every line. The cast included Jack Reber, Jack Martin, Fred W. Blaneard, Donald Grant, George A. Cummings, Arthur Hargrave, Mrs. Jack Martin, Mrs. Harold Havens, Mrs. Joseph Roshborough and Miss Camille Purdy together with scores of the school set as students of a present day college.

The general impression about a "frat" house and the campus of a modern university and the plot, a complex one, revolved around the failure of the hero's aunt to arrive from Honolulu, the lack of a chaplain, and the substitution of Jack Davis, who is to impersonate a feminine role in the Sanior Extravaganza. Complications arise and a lively medley of songs and dances are intermingled with the development of the plot. Mrs. Jack Martin, in "They Didn't Believe Me," won encore after encore, and Mrs. Joseph Roshborough was stunning as the Hawaiian Millionaire, Mrs. Colonel Bradbury, and made a splendid hit in "When Your Away."

Pretty little Mrs. Bud Havens and Jack Martin scored in a duet and dance, "Half Past Two."

At the last moment Jack Reber assumed the leading role—that of Dick Langtry, which was to have been played by George Taylor. Taylor was called by the sudden passing away of his mother, earlier in the day.

"Scrub," the burlesque character, was inaugurated by Donald Grant and was one of the most amusing characters in the cast.

Dainty little Frances Redman and Gerald Brandenburg in "Watch Your Step" gave one of the greatest numbers.

Tonight's performance is to be cut short one half hour and there will be no encores, in order that many may attend the supper dance to follow at the Hotel Oakland. Not a table was to be secured last night at the hotel, where the wool fund committee and members of the cast, together with hundreds assembled for the

NOTE ON UNIFORM TELLS OF SUICIDE

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—The finding of a soldier's uniform in a vacant lot adjoining 236 Embarcadero with a note pinned to it is causing a search by the Army Intelligence Bureau and police for a member of the Eighth Infantry, Camp Fremont, believed to be Berger Borgeson, formerly of Aspen, California.

To the uniform was pinned a letter addressed to Berger Borgeson, Eighth Infantry, at Camp Fremont, and across the face was scribbled these words:

"Dear folks at home: It is impossible for me to stand it any longer. Love to all. Godfrey Berger. P. S.—When you receive this I will be in the ocean."

The envelope contained Borgeson's identification card and a letter evidently from his mother which was signed "Anna Borgeson." The uniform was found by James McInerney, 216 Duboce, who notified the police.

supper dance. Tonight seats will be sold in the gallery, beyond the first three rows for 25 cents.

Lakeshore Highlands

Permanently protected by restrictions

The tremendous—the phenomenal—growth of Oakland, present and assured for the immediate future, is the thing that makes the building restrictions in Lakeshore Highlands so IMPORTANT and VALUABLE.

We now know that in the next twelve months 35,000 or 40,000 men will be added to the already enormously swollen industrial pay rolls of the East Bay.

The Oakland Tribune, after canvassing the situation, declares editorially that this will add 100,000 to the population in ONE YEAR and at least 150,000 by 1920!

That is to say, in TWO YEARS an increase equal to the growth of Oakland during the entire 57 years from its founding in 1853 up to the census of 1910!

This means, of course, a vast amount of NECESSARY building—including HOMES, the most necessary of all!—and the intrusion of garages, stores, apartments and what-not into districts hitherto residential—the repetition many, many times of what is shown happening now in Oakland in the picture below, reproduced from an actual photograph.

When the high side walls of garages, stores or other structures come crowding up against a nice home, blanketing it from light, air and sunshine, the place becomes less desirable for your wife and children, the residential character of the section is lost, a great part of the value of the home is wiped out at a stroke.

This will soon be happening, not once, but scores of times, in many parts of expanding Oakland—but it can never happen in Lakeshore Highlands.

Protective building restrictions, prepared with great care, absolutely guarantee each builder of a home in Lakeshore Highlands—not merely for ten years, but PERMANENTLY—that there will be nothing around him but beautiful homes and gardens—no intrusion of business, no spite fences, no freak houses, no shacks, no private garages allowed to be placed where they will spoil his outlook, no unsightly feature of any sort.

Prices as low as $20, $25 and $30 a front foot on terms requiring only a small cash payment and then $12, $15 or $20 a month. A mile and a half of street work now complete.

Grasp this opportunity NOW.

Write for maps and illustrated literature about Lakeshore Highlands. Then see it for yourself Sunday—or sooner.

THURSDAY, JUNE 27, 1918.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.

The Fourth of July this year will be celebrated in a manner never before known. In the United States there will be less of spectacular fireworks and more of spectacular contribution of constructive effort to the fight for the country. As one act in the Independence Day program 100 merchant ships, to have a tonnage of approximately 500,000 dead-weight tons, will be launched. About 20 per cent of this tonnage will be launched in Oakland and Alameda shipbuilding plants.

This achievement alone is sufficient to make the one hundred and forty-second anniversary of the nation's independence distinctive. In about 100 days more the 100 ships will be carrying troops and supplies to Europe, so next week America is going to hit a mighty blow at the German military machine. There will be other deeds to signify the intense concentration of the people toward making their patriotism mean something substantial for their country.

In France the Fourth of July will be observed in an unprecedented manner. Maurice Damour, a member of the Chamber of Deputies, in an article in the Paris Journal, writes:

"The Fourth of July is as much a French holiday as American. . . . The whole people of France must celebrate. All the houses in Paris and the provinces must be decorated with French and American flags. Processions must be organized in Paris. Flowers must be deposited before the statue of Washington, and the American flag must be raised at the same hour in all cities, towns and villages of France."

Brazil will stage a monster military and naval parade in Rio Janeiro in honor of America's Independence Day, something never before known. There will be demonstrations in Italy, the western corner of Belgium, in Greece, Panama, Cuba and many other places where the significance of the United States to the history and destiny of the world is realized.

In this country elements of the population that never were imbued with the spirit of July Fourth are blessed with a new vision and are anticipating the event with a new feeling. Groups representing twenty-two nationalities are planning formally to take part in the celebration. They include citizens of Armenian, Assyrian, Belgian, Chinese, Czechoslovakian, Danish, Dutch, Finnish, French, French-Canadian, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Japanese, Lithuanian, Norwegian, Polish, Portuguese, Russian, Rumanian, Slav, Swedish and Swiss origin. Representatives of these groups on May 21 presented an appeal to President Wilson to issue a proclamation calling upon the native-born to unite with the foreign-born citizens in commemorating the birth of national freedom, which they now observe to have been the birth of world freedom. In their appeal they made the following statement:

"We represent those peoples whose sons and daughters came to this land later than the founders of the Republic, but drawn by the same ideals. The nations and races and peoples which we represent are taking their part, in one way or another, in the struggle. Some, happily, enjoying a political entity, are fighting openly and with arms against the enemies of progress. Others, unhappily submerged, can give but a passive opposition. Others have been forced against their will into the armies of the common enemy. Finally, a few still remain outside, hard pressed, threatened by the mailed fist, dreading alike to be drawn in and to be found apart from the rest when the hour of settlement arrives. But all, through infinite suffering, struggle either blindly or open-eyed toward the same end—the right of peoples to govern themselves as they themselves see fit, and a just and lasting peace. . . . United for the principles of that democratic world-state which is fighting now for its being on the battlefields of Europe, we intend, on July 4, 1918, to manifest, by special celebrations, our loyalty to this country and to the cause for which we fight; and we respectfully request that you call the attention of your fellow citizens to this fact, in order that they may join with us in commemorating this, the anniversary not only of national freedom, but of universal freedom."

It was this appeal that formed the basis of Mr. George Creel's indiscreetly-worded advice to the officials of all communities to include the foreign elements in the Independence Day ceremonies. The naturalized citizens may not have had precisely the right conception of what is necessary to qualify for participation in America's natal day. And Mr.

Creel, who has an unhappy knack of doing and saying the wrong thing, did not improve the situation.

All that is needed to admit any resident in the United States to ceremonies that will be held in every city of the country next week is a clean, loyal heart. The naturalized citizen and the native-born, whether of native or foreign stock, have equal rights if they have remained true and faithful to America. Foreign residents who are in sympathy with and fighting for America's cause may have a seat of honor with the best. Every man and woman that has been and is now a good citizen, helping his country wherever possible, is entitled to the privilege of rejoicing and rededication.

Those who have not qualified by deeds and an honest heart are not wanted in any place where the Stars and Stripes casts its shadow.

DO NOT RELAX.

Crop reports from all sections of the country are very favorable. The United States will produce, if harvest labor is adequate, over a billion bushels of grain food, which in the past, when the need was less and effort not so intense, would have been called a "bumper crop." But let this not lead us into relaxation of effort to save every possible mouthful of food. The food waster, until the end of the war, can only be classed among the enemies of the country.

The Allied world's food stocks probably never were lower than they are today. There will be very little if any grain on hand when the new wheat crop is available. Thousands of square miles of the finest wheat-growing areas of France are in German hands. The wheat of Argentina and Australia is unavailable because there are no ships in which to carry it. The neutral nations of Europe cannot raise enough food to meet their own needs. Upon the United States, therefore, rests primarily the responsibility of rationing not only itself but France, Italy, Great Britain and some of the neutrals besides.

While it is not true that food alone will win the war, it is a solemn fact that without food in large quantities from this country our allies will collapse, leaving us to bear alone the burden of the great conflict. It is freely admitted in Britain and France that only America's self-denial during the past year saved those countries from surrendering to Germany through sheer starvation. In view of this fact, how can any American fail to be impressed with the necessity of food saving?

Americans have not been asked to save food to the point of endangering their health. They have been asked simply not to waste food, and to use wholesome and palatable substitutes for meat and wheat. It isn't making much of a sacrifice to do this, yet the saving effected in this manner will stave off famine abroad and keep up the fighting spirit of our allies.

Regardless of what our farms may do, let every patriotic American strive this year as he has not striven before to save food. Let us resolve to go into 1919 if possible with big reserve stocks on hand. No one knows what conditions may be in another year. Crops may be poor, with the war still in progress. It is better to be careful now than to be sorry later.

We can properly take account of this. Judge Dooling refused the request of a prisoner for a sentence to the Alameda county jail instead of the San Francisco jail. The magistrate had been hunched that the inspiration of the request was the fact that prisoners here are not made to work, while on the other side they have to exert themselves in an adjacent vegetable field. This indicates the enforcement of the work-or-fight policy. It suggests that the sacker is not to be allowed to escape work because he gets in jail. Incidentally it discloses that the Alameda county sheriff must be provided with a practical garden before he can compete.

CONSERVING CAPITAL AND CREDIT.

It is generally agreed that all unnecessary use of material, capital and credit must be methodically discouraged in the interest of the nation's safety and of victory in the present war. The demands of the government for goods as well as for funds wherewith to pay for such goods are heavy and certain to grow still heavier. Already Secretary McAdoo has served notice of a $6,000,000,000 loan and if this announcement following an appeal upon the heels of the third Liberty Loan recently floated, did not create apprehension in the banking world, the remarkable fact is ascribed by experts to the one important measure of preparedness which the outbreak of the world war found on our statute books—the federal reserve act, with its scientific provisions for the conservation and cooperative utilization of the banking strength of the country.

While the federal reserve system is working well and enabling the country to meet the demands of the government and of ordinary business, there are certain serious problems that challenge the attention of financiers and bankers. Large corporations find it difficult to market even the soundest securities at moderate rates of interest. Public utilities are appealing to the war finance corporation for advances, but they are informed that under the existing law little can be done for them. Banks, on the other hand, argue that they cannot burden themselves with long-term fixed loans, such as utility companies need, without gravely affecting their ability to finance normal business and government operations.

War conditions in the use of money and credit is necessary to prevent dangerous inflation of prices, and such economy is far from being a simple and familiar affair. Nor will economy alone solve all our financial problems. The rates charged by utility companies have increased in many instances, and will have to be increased to meet the obligations of the utility companies that have become a source of weakness and embarrassment to the community and to the whole fabric of national finance and credit. Intelligent and courageous action by State commissions on requests for authority to raise rates is among the measures that are essential to our industrial and financial stability. Another important measure that is now finding favor is the liberal use of what are called "trade acceptances." This is a form of credit readily known in America. The trade acceptance is a time draft drawn by the seller of goods on the buyer and payable at the expiration of the latter, with date and place of payment. It is held that trade acceptances would enable the utility companies to obtain the cash needed to permit the fuller utilization, within safe limits, of the facilities of the federal reserve banks.

"We do not know what is ahead of us," said one speaker at the Chicago meeting of the American method, efficiency council, "but we do know that severe national resource will make assurance of victory doubly sure."—Chicago Tribune

NOTES and COMMENT

Here is a Yolo county woman who averts a divorce complaint that her husband refused to subscribe to the Red Cross fund or take a bath. Wouldn't act, however or smell sweet. She is entitled to the alimony.

The war comes high, but it is worth it. It will be easier to finance victory than defeat.

Congress is to take a rest next week, or at least the President approves of such a lay-off, though he ought not to worry. He has had his way pretty well notwithstanding it.

"Twenty Americans are cited for their courage." Different kind of reading from that which details the rounding up of the occasional slacker.

One has to be careful in reading the despatches. It will not do when you come to a headline containing the name "Diaz" to pass on with the conclusion that that is Mexican stuff. Diaz is the general in command of the Italian forces that are making it so inhospitable for the Austrians.

A German raider is said to be at large in the Caribbean sea. One of the unavoidable results of the evolution of war craft is the elimination of the yard arm. In former times it came in handy when a pirate was encountered.

Another assault, with dreadful results, on a hospital just back of the firing line. And wonder is expressed in some quarters why the world has come to have such detestation of the embattled Hun!

"Secretary Baker, blindfolded, will draw the draft list." The Secretary of War may go about this business in that manner, but for the rest of it he no doubt realizes the necessity of keeping his vision as true as possible. And there is evidence that his sight is not materially obscured.

Dr. von Kuehlmann, in the Reichstag, says that "peace negotiations must rest on mutual confidence in honesty." Just so. That is the reason why anything that might be agreed to by the Hun is in danger of being nothing but a scrap of paper.

News of the assassination of the czar. Not at all improbable. It is the bloody Russian way of eliminating inefficient rulers; but it will be of no immediate help in solving the great world problem.

Compulsory training begins at Stanford. Whether the student is naturally inclined or not, he has to stand a gun and march. The discipline and general experience is likely to stand him in good stead, whether or not the war keeps up after he shall have learned how.

An epidemic of baseball. The underpinning of all kinds of baseball is more or less wobbly. If we may except the kind that is maintained by the shipyard workers who have other sources of income.

After the war military maneuvers will probably be conducted by marching, counter-marching, debouching, enfilading, massing and other normal movements. But in the heat of this conflict it would appear the troops have to be "hurled" at the enemy, that the enemy may be "hurled back."

"Mother and father told me to get them," said a New York marine wounded at Bourges, France. "The 'them' he got were Boches, and a plenty. The moral of the story is found in the fact that the father and mother to whom he refers were born in Germany."—New York Herald.

Seventy-five per cent of Wisconsin will go dry after next Monday. But Milwaukee is to remain in the weather where the moisture prevails. It is to be remembered that Milwaukee was not made famous by a drought.

On July Fourth new ships will be plopping into the water in a way to add distinctly to the celebration activities.

A Chicago paper makes the cryptic announcement that "Hugens signs Ham Hyatt." To make the news clearer, it says that Ham Hyatt is a left fielder.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

Los Angeles will have a Sunday law after this. They never have a law down there which works more than one day a week.—Santa Rosa Republican.

From all reports and the evidence of some drunkenness on the streets, there is bootlegging in booze sales going on in California, and, strange as it may seem, the men who are making most of the complaints are some of those who were foremost in the prohibition business in the recent election, and who are now conducting soft drink places.—Coolidge Oil Record.

Yuba City is graduating from the Jay town class. She is soon to have all paved streets, is already minus the town pump and is to have a new jail. If the wooden awnings are removed she can be classed ahead of Marysville as regards civic progress.—Marysville Appeal.

Senator Hiram Johnson declares that Congress has been "cowed." The inference is that President Wilson has "cowed" it while "steering" it. But after all, isn't it better to be "steered" and "cowed" and accomplish something, than to be "laid" and "cowed" and get nothing done. It is. We are much obliged. I thank you.—Red Bluff News.

An eastern dispatch announces that the Japanese are the only people who have ever undertaken the systematic harvesting of seaweed and other marine vegetation. The writer of that dispatch ought to come out to San Diego and get acquainted with a few of our kelp cutters.—San Diego Union.

CORN OIL AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR LARD AND OTHER FATS.

Corn oil is the newest product of corn and is now recommended as a substitute for lard and other fats as a measure of war-time conservation.

"The Food Administration has asked that vegetable oils be used to save fats," said M. E. Landauer of the corn division, United States Food Administration. "I do not know of any vegetable oil that I can recommend more highly than corn oil. It is pressed from corn hearts and refined to an edible oil of enormously high shortening value. Comparative tests have been made of its use in place of butter, lard, olive oil, or shortening compounds. These tests have proved that it makes more digestible, more economical and much richer foods than any other cooking product. The analysis from a nutritive standpoint demonstrates that it combines more nourishing qualities than butter or any other fat."

"Corn oil is much cheaper than lard, about one-third as cheap as good butter and about one-half the price of olive oil in normal times. Because of its richness only two-thirds as much corn oil is used for shortening as would be used of butter or lard."

"For deep frying corn oil can be used over and over again, as it does not absorb the odor of foods cooked in it. It may be used to fry onions and then, after straining, to fry onions and later some sweet delicacy. For frying cutters, fish meat and croquettes nothing as yet has equaled corn oil."

"A matter of significance to the housewife is that corn oil will not smoke, with resultant bad odors, until heated to over 650 degrees F., while butter burns at 250, lard at 425 and cottonseed oil at 530 degrees. When food is cooked at low temperatures, lard and other fats soak into it, making it greasy and indigestible and the flavor escapes into the grease. In using corn oil at a high temperature the surface juices are instantly coagulated, sealing the food so that no taste or smell escapes in its own grease and returning all the flavor, aroma and succulence."

"The low coagulating point in corn oil makes it very desirable for salad dressings and condiments. Corn oil remains fluid down to 14 degrees while other table oils solidify at 32 degrees. Corn oil is absolutely pure. It is sterilized and purified by steaming and filtration. This steaming also destroys the germens, which would cause rancidity and thus insure the keeping quality."

CARRANZA AND THE BUZZ SAW.

So Carranza, at the instance of his German friends, is hitting at Cuba, and, through Cuba, at the United States.

Carranza is looking for trouble. Is it merely coincidence that he should have developed this acute case of anti-Americanism at the same time as was fixed by the Kaiser for his expected revolution in Ireland? It will be difficult for Americans to believe that there is no relation between the two events; but it will not be difficult for them, even if it is for Carranza, to understand that the one venture is as certain as the other to turn out a failure.

Evidence has been accumulating for some months to prove that Carranza and his associates are under the influence of German agents. The anti-American campaign conducted by the portion of the Mexico City press under Carranza government has grown steadily more bitter. Recently it has broadened out its attacks to include Canada and Cuba as well, those countries being charged with conspiring with the United States to invade Mexico.

It is manifest that the Zimmerman program never has been abandoned by Germany. Every indication points to many of the persons holding high position in the Mexican government being in Germany's pay.—New York Herald.

SICK ALIENS WILL REGISTER AT HOME

With the close of the registration period for alien enemy women and girls last night, it was announced today by Corporal V. J. Coley in charge of the bureau at police headquarters that there are 495 names on the lists with approximately twenty-five more to be added. These twenty-five are either ill in hospitals or in their homes and too feeble to make the trip to the city hall. They have, however, notified their authorities and tomorrow special deputies will visit them and add their names to the list. The lists have been completed and they will be compared with the lists of the year for the purpose of checking up discrepancies. At the same time there are a number of cases already in the hands of the military authorities and the police. It is said that there have been several attempts to evade the requirements of the registration law.

ANDERSON HURT IN AUTO UPSET

Former City Commissioner Harry S. Anderson and J. E. Mauehan, 615 Santa Ray avenue, are suffering from painful injuries as the result of an automobile accident at Pacheco yesterday afternoon. They were hurrying from Walnut Creek to catch the Martinez ferry, and were going about 30 miles an hour, they say, when a rear tire on their machine exploded, causing the car to swerve and upset. Anderson was thrown to one side and Mauehan was pinned underneath the machine. Anderson, although injured, was able to lift the heavy car sufficiently to permit Mauehan to crawl out. They were taken to Walnut Creek by passing motorists.

Mauehan was later taken to the Tuberosa hospital. He has a broken collar bone and sustained injuries to his legs and head and out from the broken windshield. Anderson's arm was bruised and his back wrenched.

Dock and Deck

At request of the government three months ago The TRIBUNE discontinued the printing of news concerning schedules, names, routes and movement of shipping in the Pacific. This newspaper was the first publication on this coast to act on the government's request and for more than two months was alone in doing so.

Another vessel has been added to the codfish fleet but will not go into that trade until next year, as she was chartered before the Alaska Codfish Company purchased her yesterday, and will make her voyage as a freighter. She is the schooner Bangor, an old time lumber packet, and a frequent visitor to Oakland harbor. Some years ago she was sold for a small sum and rigged into a barge, but a few months ago her owners refitted her into a schooner, and sold her for $51,000.

The disabled steamer which sent out at S. O. S. call a few days ago, has been reported off Humboldt and is being towed to a port for repairs.

SECOND CONCRETE CRAFT IS LAUNCHED.
The second concrete craft built on the Pacific Coast was launched at Puget Sound yesterday. The vessel is of 500 tons register, and will be used as an ocean-going barge.

The steamer Niels Nielsen has been taken over by the United States Ship Board. She has made two voyages to off shore ports, since she has been in commission.

After concrete vessels having shown themselves successful, now comes another new idea in shipbuilding. D. B. Finley, a shipyard employee, has a process whereby he claims he can build craft out of asphaltum, which is much cheaper than concrete. He is trying to form a stock company and if successful, Oakland harbor may have a new

WOODEN CRAFT.
Almost every wooden craft on the Pacific coast has been towed to Oakland harbor for machinery during the past year. This port has had a new hull for machinery about every week, and machine shops here have been kept busy. Several new hulls are under construction.

Captain William Batchelor has reappeared on the water front. He had been confined to his home for several weeks on account of sickness. Batchelor will resume command of a craft after a few weeks.

As a result of the order from Washington sent to the shipping firm importing copra, today they will hold a meeting to discuss the order which states each firm can only ship but a certain amount of copra each month for the next six months.

DEMAND 100 PER CENT AMERICANISM

W. S. S.

My Pledge
Is In

Details of this War Savings Stamp drive have been loudly shouted into the ears, and flashed before the eyes of every Oaklander.

Ignorance of this pressing demand of the nation can be pleaded by none.

True American institutions display 100 per cent pledge cards. Its absence indicates luke warmness or disloyalty.

The loyal citizen has a right to know, in this national crisis, who is with our government, and who is not.

Foolish and fatal to temporize with Pro-Germanism.

None are working today who cannot afford at least one $5 War Stamp before December 31. Such a pledge from every employee puts the 100 per cent card in the window.

There is, nor can there be, no acceptable excuse for its absence except

REED BEGINS HIS FILIBUSTER ON SUFFRAGE

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Senator Reed of Missouri, an opponent of suffrage, this afternoon began a filibuster in the Senate against a vote on the suffrage amendment. Reed announced he was prepared to talk indefinitely on a motion of Senator Jones of New Mexico to sidetrack the army bill for further consideration of suffrage.

By a practically unanimous vote the Senate took up the woman suffrage amendment to the constitution, after having temporarily blocked it. Senator Poinsett, continuing a statement which Senator Lodge interrupted by a demand for the regular order of business, declared suffrage for women is now accepted by even the most hardheaded men as "wise and justifiable."

Indicative of the interest in the debate, 51 Senators were on hand to answer to their names when the roll was called. The presence of so many women in the galleries brought Senators out in their most resplendent togery.

The debate was opened by a set speech by Senator Poinsett of Washington. He declared that many of the excellent policies of the western states would not have been enacted without woman suffrage. The head-headed business men and yet expect women to give them their votes? I bid them to take heed lest they commit an act of political folly."

Senator Thompson of Kansas pointed out that both parties had endorsed the federal amendment, but he was not allowed to establish this point without much heckling from the anti-Suffragists.

"If you do not pass it today I predict there will be an endorsement of it in both platforms in 1920," he added. "How can Senators stand against votes for women and yet expect women to give them their votes? I bid them to take heed lest they commit an act of political folly."

At 2 p. m. the suffrage resolution was automatically displaced by the $12,000,000 army bill, the unfinished business of the Senate. But for some time debate continued unchecked on suffrage until Senator Chamberlain, in charge of the army bill, and a friend of suffrage, demanded the army measure be taken up and suffrage laid aside.

TEN WANTED FOR FIRST AID COURSE

Ten women are wanted to complete the enrollment in the course in first aid and elementary hygiene given at the Young Women's Christian Association Tuesday and Friday evenings. It is planned to recruit the nurse aids from the graduates of the course. Women wishing to take the course are asked to register at Red Cross headquarters immediately. Fifteen lessons will be given and the cost will be about $3.50.

The Oakland division of the Red Cross has started making refugee garments and will carry on this work until September. The division has received material for a thousand each of refugee shirts, petticoats and chemises from the Pacific Division of the Red Cross, which has an urgent call for these garments as soon as they are completed. Women with extra time are urged to go to the rooms at Fifth and Broadway and sew. The Junior Red Cross, which has been handling the refugee work heretofore, is unable to meet the demand.

A new card system of giving out free wool has been started. In future knitters will pay $1 for cards for helmet and wool and $2.50 for sweater wool. These cards are good for wool until the knitter turns them in and receives her deposit back. There is a call at present for helmets.

Since the first of the year the Oakland chapter has grown from 30 auxiliaries to 143.

LOYALTY IS 100 PER CENT HIGH IN COUNTY SCHOOLS

Alameda county schools are 100 per cent loyal, according to reports received by Superintendent George W. Frick, in response to letters recently written by him to the trustees of the different districts. In these letters the superintendent required that before teachers are engaged for the coming school year they shall furnish satisfactory proof of their qualifications to teach Americanism, the true cause of the war and aims and purposes of its prosecution. In reply, the trustees of nearly every district have assured the superintendent that the instructors have been rigorously followed, and the loyalty of the schools can be counted upon to be one hundred per cent.

SIXTH MAN IN TUNNEL BLAST MAY ALSO DIE

Five men are dead and another is in a serious condition as the result of an explosion of natural gas yesterday afternoon in a tunnel of the East Bay Water Company at the head of Spruce street leading into Wildcat canyon. The dead are Nels Persson, foreman; W. Boll, Edward Green, Charles Johnson and Frank Lesure. A Henry was badly burned and internally injured and is at the Providence hospital.

The six men were at work 300 feet underground and 1500 feet from the mouth of the tunnel. Henry was running a small electric locomotive which hauled the dirt from the tunnel. He stopped his motor when approaching the mouth of the tunnel and started it again, and it is presumed that a spark from the motor ignited gas in the tunnel. In the resulting explosion earth above the tunnel caved and buried the five workers, already probably killed by the explosion.

Oscar Anderson, foreman, and several of the victims' comrades worked heroically to save the entombed men. Working gas masks they entered the tunnel where they found Henry unconscious and carried him back to the entrance. A call was sent to the Berkeley fire department, which responded with apparatus and smoke helmets.

After the fumes had been cleared from the tunnel, the debris caused by the explosion was dug away and the five workmen were being dug by Bates and Borland, contractors, who have the contract for boring a tunnel through the hills to bring the water duct of the East Bay company through.
